Table 9. Roman NHLF-funded community projects

For information about the compilation of this table, see Table 8.

England

Name of site	Main organisation	Nature of project	date	Type
Andover, Hampshire	Andover History & Archaeology Society	'The Time Ring Revealed - Andover Roman Archaeology Project'. This appears to have been to do with the publication of excavations of Roman sites around Andover (£22,770).	2005	community archaeology
Arbeia Roman Fort, South Shields, Tyne & Wear	Arbeia Roman Fort & Museum	Arbeia Roman Fort, South Shields - restoration	1997	ancient monument
Arbeia Roman Fort, South Shields, Tyne & Wear	Arbeia Roman Fort & Museum	'South Tyneside Heritage: Arbeia Roman Fort'. A large NHLF grant for various workshops and free events, including a wide range of heritage sites one of which is Arbeia Roman Fort. This included improving the display of	2017	ancient monument, commemoration the Fort, a wildflower meadow, and a 'Roman market festival'. (£71,800 as part of a larger project).

Ashton, Tameside, Greater Manchester	NACRO, Greater Manchester	'Life of a Roman Soldier in Northern England', an exhibition at the central art gallery, Ashton with works created by teenagers. (£10,000).	2014	commemoration
Barber's Point, Friston, Suffolk	Aldeburgh District Local History Society	'Barbers Point Roman Site' funding to a local historical society in 2004 for work at a salt producing site. (£24,800). Additional work has also been funded here as a result of as substantial later project titled 'Touching the Tide', which has undertaken extensive work on Suffolk's coast.	2004-2013	community archaeology
Bath, North East Somerset and Bath	Bath & North East Somerset Council	'Beau Street Hoard'. Funding to acquire and display a Roman coin hoard found in the town. (£480,000).	2014	museum collection
Bath, North East Somerset and Bath	Bath & North East Somerset Council	'Archway Centre Project'. This will create a learning centre and World Heritage Centre at the Roman baths and open up areas of the Roman remains. (£3,400,000).	2016	museum collection, ancient monument
Bedford Museum, Bedfordshire	Bedford Museum	'Haynes Roman Hoard - acquisition & display'. This late Roman hoard of coins and jewellery was acquired to be put on display at the Museum. (£31,600).	1998	museum collection

Birdoswald Roman fort, Brampton, Cumbria	Cumbria County Council	'Birdoswald Roman Fort: access and presentation'. (£30,000).	2000	ancient monument
Boxford, Berkshire	Boxford History Project	'Boxford's Ancient Heritage'. A community excavation that also involved the Cotswold Archaeological Unit has uncovered the remains of a Roman villa and impressive mosaic (£62,700).	2015	community archaeology
Brading Villa, Isle of Wight	Oglander Trust	'Brading Roman Villa'. A grant to the Oglander Trust (the organisation that run the villa) that secured the future of the Roman villa and its mosaics, with the majority of the funding provided by the NHLF. (£2,009,000). The Oglander Trust has subsequently received further funding from the NHLF.	2001	ancient monument
Brading Villa, Isle of Wight	Oglander Trust	'Roman Roots'. Created by South Wight Youth Theatre, this was a play by young people to portray life on the Island in Roman times. This was set around Brading Roman Villa and told a 'Romeo and Juliet-type story' set against the warring background of the Romans and Celts'. (£20,600).	2007	commemoration

Brading Villa, Isle of Wight	Oglander Trust	'Preparation of an audience development plan for Brading Roman Villa'. (£12,000).	2007	ancient monument
Bridge Farm, Upper Wellingham, East Sussex	Culver Archaeological Project	'Roads, Rivers and Romans project'. The Culver Archaeological Project to investigate a Roman site, probably a nucleated settlement or small town and some excavations by AOC Archaeology uncovered Roman deposits. (£90,900).	2012	community archaeology
Brighton Royal Pavilion, Brighton, Sussex	Brighton Royal Pavilion	'Roman Sussex'. Acquiring and displaying the large Roman coin hoard from Burwash, East Sussex, including workshops and a touring exhibition. (£48,600).	2012	museum collection
British Museum, London	British Museum	'Acquisition of an enamelled and inscribed Roman bronze pan, found at Ilam, Staffordshire'. This grant enabled the Museum to acquire and display the 'Staffordshire Moorlands Pan'. (£112,200).	2005	museum collection
Burgh Castle Roman Fort, Norfolk	Norfolk Archaeological Trust	'Burgh Castle Roman Fort: Life Outside the Walls', investigated through geophysical survey and test pitting of how the settlement outside the fort walls developed. (£9,600).	2016	community archaeology
Caistor St Edmunds, Norfolk	Caistor Roman Projects Ltd	'From Roman Town to Medieval manor'. This project is investigating the area outside the Roman town walls and	2016	community archaeology the Anglo-Saxon settlement that developed in the vicinity, including geophysical excavation and trial teaching led by Norfolk Archaeological Trust. (£84,300). This project has also received earlier NHLF grants.

Calstock, Cornwall	Tamar Valley AONB	'Calstock Parish Heritage Project'. The grant funded excavations in the parish included excavations at a newly discovered Roman fort and the provision of an information board. The NHLF provided a grant of (£35,500) toward a project that also had additional funding	2010	community archaeology, ancient monument
Cambridge, Cambridgeshire	Beds, Cambs & Northants Wildlife Trust	'Devils Dyke & Roman Road - restoration'. No further information found. (£12,000).	1997	ancient monument
Cambridge, Cambridgeshire	The Friends of the Roman Road and Fleam Dyke	'Roman Road Enhancement Project'. This works appears mainly to have related to the enhancement of the natural environment of this area of land that contains a Roman road and an early medieval earthwork. (£24,500).	2002	ancient monument
Carlisle, Cumbria	Tullie House Museum	'Uncovering Roman Carlisle', part-funded community engagement project, including excavation of a Roman bathhouse (£99,000)	2021	community archaeology

Castleshaw Roman Fort, Saddleworth, Greater Manchester	Friends of Clastleshaw Roman Forts	'Redefining Roman Castleshaw'. Excavations led by the University of Salford including volunteers to examine the Roman fort and surrounding area. (£70,100). Earlier grants have also been awarded.	2014	community archaeology
Castor, Cambridgeshire	Caistor CE Primary School	'Roman trail around Castor Village'. This grant funded a trail around the remains of the small town and also a website, created by Caistor CE Primary School. (£9,500).	2014	ancient monument
Castor St Edmunds, Norfolk	Caistor Roman Projects Ltd.	'Roman Town to modern village'. This grant supported the work to map archaeological discoveries at this Roman town. £9,600	2014	Community archaeology
Castor St Edmunds, Norfolk	Caistor Roman Projects Ltd.	'From Roman Town to medieval manor'. This grant supported test pitting across the area around the Roman town and to support some oral history work. £84,300	2016	Community archaeology; commemoration
Chedworth Roman Villa, Gloucestershire	National Trust	'Chedworth Exposed: The Golden Age of Roman Britain'. The conservation and interpretation of one of the National Trust's oldest properties, including a viewing platform and learning centre. (£700,000 contribution to a £3,000,000 project).	2010	ancient monument

Chester Farm, Irchester, Northamptonshire	Northamptonshire County Council	'Chester Farm Heritage Park'. Substantial multi-phase project that includes an archaeological interpretation centre to exhibit the results of the excavation of sites in an around the site. There is a Roman small town at the site and fairly extensive excavations and geophysical surveys have been undertaken. This project also includes Iron Age and Medieval archaeology. (£4,000,000).	2013	ancient monument
Chesterton, Staffordshire	Cheserton Youth Forum	'Bringing the Romans to life'. Project to help young people to research the history of a Roman fort, settlement and camp, which will involve re-enactments of games and the creation of a small amphitheatre in a local park (£36,300).	2015	commemoration
Cirencester, Gloucestershire	Cotswold District Council	'Stone Age to Corinium: Discover the archaeology of the Cotswolds'. Funded an interactive gallery to tell the story of the Cotswolds during prehistory and the Roman period. (£773,200). This venue has received earlier NHLF funding.	2015	museum collection
Colchester, Essex	Colchester Archaeological Trust	'Abbeyfields Roman Circus and Mosaic Project' This developed and interpreted the circus site for visitors. (£14,850).	2005	ancient monument

Colchester, Essex	Colchester and Ipswich Museum Service	Reinterpretation and redisplay of Colchester castle, which has the remains of the Temple of Claudius in its basements. It also contains an important collection of Iron Age and Roman finds from the oppidum and Roman town. (£3,200,000).	2009-11	museum collection, ancient monument
Colchester, Essex	Signals Media Art	'Dig Deeper: The archaeology of Colchester's Roman Circus'. This used young people to create an animation and app for the Colchester Circus Visitor Centre. (£27,300).	2016	commemoration, ancient monument
Corbridge, Northumberland	Tyne & Wear Museum Services	'The Roman bridge at Corbridge - "The Work of Giants"'. This funded excavation of the Roman bridge at this military and urban site. (£346,000).	2004	community archaeology
Credenhill, Herefrodshire	Hereford Sixth Form College	'Roman Credenhill'. This involved excavation of a Roman farm or villa and also created a walk and leaflets to help people to explore a Roman farmstead and road, (£34,500).	2016	community archaeology, ancient monument
Dorchester, Dorset	Dorchester Council	'Improving the physical and intellectual access to Dorchester Roman Town House to a wider audience' (£248,900)	2019	ancient monument
Durham, County Durham	The Piercebridge Divers	'Durham Roman River Crossing'. This funding to the Piercebridge Divers to look for a Roman river crossing close to Durham. (£19,525).	2005	community archaeology

Eastbourne, East Sussex	Eastbourne Borough Council	'Eastbourne Ancestors Project'. This enabled scientific analysis of the Museum's human bone collection and an exhibition, including the discovery of the information for the mobility of the 'Beachy Head Lady'. (£73,800).	2012	museum collection
Exeter, Royal Albert Memorial Museum, Exeter	Royal Albert Memorial Museum	'Seaton Down Hoard, unveiling Roman History in Devon'. This funding the acquisition and display of a vast Roman coin hoard. (£59,500).	2016	museum collection
Fane Road, Peterborough, Cambridgeshire	Oxford Archaeology East	'The Romans of Fane Road'. The investigation of a Roman villa and Iron Age farmstead also including a variety of events for local people to display the results, including firing of imitation Roman pottery. (£88,200).	2013	community archaeology
Fenlands, Cambridgeshire	Fenland Archaeology Society	'The Fenlands in Roman times'. This involved local people conducting landscape survey and producing activities and resources for school children. (£5,700).	2012	community archaeology
Fishbourne Roman Palace, Chichester, West Sussex	Sussex Archaeological Society	'Fishbourne Roman Palace'. This funded Sussex Archaeological society to improve access and interpretation at the site. (£2,668,500). The venue has also received additional funding from the Lottery.	2001	ancient monument

Fishbourne Roman Palace, Chichester, West Sussex	Sussex Archaeological Society	'I dug at Fishbourne! Community Archaeology at the Roman Palace'. (£10,000).	2013	commemoration
Fishbourne Roman Palace, Chichester, West Sussex	Sussex Archaeological Society	'Exploring the past at Fishbourne Roman Palace'. (£10,000).	2017	ancient monument
Folkestone, Kent	Folkestone People's History Centre	'A Town Unearthed: Folkestone before 1500'. This has involved excavation in the town and has unearthed Iron Age and Roman occupation. (£298,700).	2009	community archaeology
Folkestone, Kent	Folkestone Museum	Folkestone Museum is a new venture funded by the NHLF, which exhibits the towns diverse collection and includes the finds from the excavation of the Roman villa. (£1,950,000 for the broader project of which the Museum formed part).	2017	museum collection
Hadrian's Wall, Tyne & Wear	Tyne & Wear Museum Services	'Hadrian's Wall and its legacy in Tyneside'. This involved local communities in researching and excavating the eastern part of Hadrian's Wall. (£400,000. An earlier NHLF grant of £10,000 helped to set up this project).	2011 2012	community archaeology
Hadrian's Wall, Cumbria,	Hadrian's Wall Trust	'World Heritage Site Community Champions'. This created learning and volunteering opportunities for	2013	ancient monument

Northumberland, Newcastle, Tyne & Wear		members of the public linked into to the protection and management of Hadrian's Wall. (£275,400).
Hadrian's Wall, Cumbria, Northumberland, Newcastle, Tyne & Wear	Newcastle University	'Hadrian's Wall Community Landscape' project. This is involving local communities in undertaking work on sections of the World Heritage Site that are eroding, including work to protect and manage the monument and to research where the stones from the Wall have been taken to when it was robbed to construct local houses, farms, fields, churches and castles. (£1,170,000).	2018	community archaeology, ancient monument
Hambledon Valley, Buckinghamshire	Chiltern Archaeology	'Romans in the Hambledon Valley'. This funded re-examination by Chiltern Archaeology of finds form the excavations at Yewden Roman Villa between 1910 and 1914. £43,300.	2009	community archaeology
High Dyke, Navenby, Lincolnshire	Navenby Archaeology Group	'High Dyke Archaeological Survey'. This involved the excavation of a Roman site by a community group. (£24,497). This group appears to have had further archaeological funding.	2009	community archaeology
Highgate Roman Heritage Project, Haringey, London	Friends of Highgate Roman Kilns	'Firing London's Imagination', redisplaying a very well-preserved Roman pottery kiln at a visitor centre in Highgate Woods (£24,3550)	2023	museum collection

Hitcham Roman Villa, Suffolk	Hitcham Parish Council	'The Hitcham Roman Villa project'. This included geophysical survey, field walking and metal detecting over the site of a villa, conducted by a community group and an archaeological unit. (£25,000).	2006	community archaeology
Ilkley, West Yorkshire	Manor House Art Gallery and Museum	'Ilkley Roman Fort', not clear what this involved. (£13,000)	1996	ancient monument
Ilkley, West Yorkshire	All Saints Parish Church, Ilkley	'Telling the story of a Parish Church, Saxon Cross and Roman Fort'. This addressed the history of this location, including a Roman fort. (£566,500).	2016	ancient monument
Ipplepen, Devon	University of Exeter	'Ipplepen Archaeology'. Funding for excavation of a Roman site discovered by metal detector users has been funded by a number of institutions. The excavation has uncovered information about a Roman settlement and also uncovered Iron Age roundhouses. The University of Exeter's 'Understanding Landscapes' NHLF grant is being used to involve volunteers, support landscape survey and community workshops in the area. (£261,000).	2017	community archaeology

Kings Weston, Bristol	Bristol City Council	'Roman Roots'. A project using the web, film and 3D reconstructions to help to interpret the remains of the villa, involving young people. (£25,000).	2006	ancient monument
Lancaster, Lancashire	Lancashire County Museum Service	'Lancaster Roman Tombstone' project. Funding for Lancaster Museum to acquire and display a Roman cavalry tombstone, part-funded by NHLF (£49,100).	2006	museum collection
Lancaster, Lancashire	Lancashire County Council	'Beyond the Castle' project. Undertook geophysical survey and excavation to reveal new aspects of the Roman fort. Part-funded by NHLF. (£59,600).	2014	community archaeology
Lanchester Roman Fort, Lanchester, County Durham	Friends of Longovicium	'Roman Lanchester and its Surroundings'. Funding for a local group to conduct a geophysical survey of the Roman fort. (£6,500).	2009	community archaeology
Liss Roman Villa, Hampshire	Liss Archaeology Group	'Excavation Liss Roman Villa Site'. Funded work by Liss Archaeological Group to excavate this Roman villa. (£50,000).	2004	community archaeology
Littleborough, Nottinghamshire	Sturton le Steeple Parish Council	'Roman Town of Segelocum and the adjacent countryside'. This included fieldwalking, test pits and geophysical survey to explore a possible Roman small town. (£35,900).	2015	community archaeology

Liverpool Museum, Liverpool, England; Congleton Museum, Cheshire	Liverpool Museum, and Congleton Museum	Hoards of Cheshire', acquiring and displaying two Roman hoards, the Knutsford Hoard and the Malpas Hoard. £65,400	2015	museum collection
Luton, Bedfordshire	Luton Borough Council	'Shillington Roman Hoard - acquisition.' This was a substantial first century coin hoard acquired for the museum. (£85,000).	1999	museum collection
Kirkham, Fylde, Lancashire	Positive Place Makers CIC	'The Romans and back in Kirkham', a programme of events drawing on the Roman presence of a Roman fort in Kirkham, including a community archaeology project, a high street mural and a street festival inspired by Kirkham's 'rich and diverse heritage' (£ 38,751)	2023	community archaeology, commemoration
Magna Roman Fort, Carvoran, Northumberland	Vindolanda Charitable Trust	'Roman magna Project', to investigate the impact of climate change on sensitive waterlogged deposits at this Roman fort (£1,600,000)	2022	community archaeology, museum collection
Marcham, Oxfordshire	Vale of the White Horse and Ridgeway Archaeological Trust	'The Trendles Project'. This is conducting post-excavation work on the finds from the Iron Age and Roman sites at Frilford/Marcham, including the Roman theatre. (£96,000). This project has received earlier NHLF funding.	2012	community archaeology

Maryport, Senhouse Museum Trust, Cumbria	Senhouse Trust	'Roman Maryport', not clear what this involved. (£50,000).	2007	ancient monument
Maryport, Senhouse Museum Trust, Cumbria	Senhouse Trust	'Maryport Roman Festival', the Senhouse Museum held an annual festival involving reenactors and NHLF funded at least one year. (£15,000).	2009	ancient monument, commemoration
Maryport, Senhouse Museum Trust, Cumbria	Senhouse Trust	'Camps Farm in Maryport'. This was to development fund to explore establishing an interpretation centre at the Roman Fort and vicus. (£165,600).	2010	ancient monument
Middlewich, Cheshire	The Roman Middlewich Project	'The Roman Middlewich project'. This has investigated a Roman salt working site over a number of years and has received a number of NHLF grants including the one listed here. (£89,300).	2000	community archaeology
North Pennines Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, Northumberland	North Pennines AONB	'Altogether Archaeology'. This project involved communities in research on archaeological sites, including some work on Roman-period sites. (£295,000).	2012	community archaeology
Northwich, Norfolk	Roman Northwich 2004	'Roman Northwich 2004'. Little is available on the Internet about what was done. (£24,783).	2003	?

North Wiltshire, Wiltshire	Wessex Archaeology	'Celts and Romans in North Wiltshire'. This project aimed got help local people to explore the local heritage of North Wiltshire and addressed an Iron Age and a Roman site at which significant archaeological remains had been found. The Roman site was a bathhouse at Truckle Hill that had been excavated with local volunteers by Wessex Archaeology in 2008. (£36,600.)	2010	community archaeology
Norwich Castle Museum, Norwich, Norfolk	Norfolk Museum & Archaeology Services	'Hockwold Roman Temple project'. This funded Norfolk Museum and Archaeology Service to acquire and display a collection of objects from this Roman temple. (£26,800).	2007	museum collection
Potters Bar, Hertfordshire	Potters Bar & District Historical Society	'Parkfield Roman Kiln Project'. Excavation of a Roman kiln. (£3,630).	2001	community archaeology
Piddington Roman Villa, Piddington, Northamptonshire	Upper Nene Archaeological Society	'Piddington Roman Villa Museum'. This helped set up this museum connected with the excavation of the Roman villa. (£166,500).	2001	museum collection

Ravenglass, Cumbria	Lake District National Park Authority	'Romans in Ravenglass'. A community project that excavated part of the civil settlement connected to the Roman fort. (£92,000).	2014	community archaeology
Reading Museum, Reading, Berkshire	Reading Museum and Archive Service	'Wokingham Roman coin hoard - acquisition'. (£9,500).	2000	museum collection
Ribchester Roman Fort, Lancashire	Ribchester Museum Trust	'Ribchester Roman Development Scheme'. The redevelopment of the Museum was funded by a number of organisations including the NHLF (£171,400).	1999	ancient monument, museum collection
Richborough Roman Fort and Town, Kent	English Heritage	'Richborough Roman Fort - Gateway to Britannia', project to redisplay and interpret this monument, including work with the local community and with the Kent Refugee Action Network (£200,000).	2020	ancient monument, museum collection
South Downs National Park, West Sussex	South Downs National Park Authority	'Archaeology Excavation of part of the Roman Road, Stane Street'. Part of a larger project to explore this Roman road and other features in the National Park. (£4,500).	2014	community archaeology
St Albans Museum, St Albans, Hertfordshire	St Albans Museum	'Veni, Vidi Verulamium'. The creation of multimedia information for tourism at the Roman municipium. (£50,000).	2008	ancient monument

St Albans Museum, St Albans, Hertfordshire	St Albans Museum	'Sandridge Late Roman Coin Hoard'. Funding to acquire and display the hoard, located about 14 kilometres from St Albans. (£105,000).	2014	museum collection
St Albans Museum, St Albans, Hertfordshire	St Albans Museum	'From Boudicca to Bribery: 10 facts about St Alban's new Museum and Gallery.' New Museum opened in 2018. It has major collections from the Iron Age oppidum and Roman town. (£2,800,000).	2018	museum collection
Sunderland, Tyne and Wear	MCB Arts Wellbeing CiC	'Learning from the Ancient Romans: Heritage, Conservation and Inclusion', a series of workshops on how the Romans made things, partly inspired by a visit to the Roman fort at Vindolanda (£124,516)	2022	commemoration
Vindolanda, Vindolanda Trust, Northumberland	Vindolanda Trust	'Vindolanda Trust Heritage Access & Interpretation Project''. To redevelop the Vindolanda Museum and the Roman Army Museum, part-funded by NHLF. (£4,000,000).	2009	museum collection, ancient monument
Vindolanda, Vindolanda Trust, Northumberland	Vindolanda Trust	'Purchase of Codley Gate'. This is a piece of land adjoining the heritage site, including barns to use for archaeological storage, including a NHLF grant (£525,000).	2013	museum collection, ancient monument

Vindolanda, Vindolanda Trust, Northumberland	Vindolanda Trust	'Wooden World'. A grant to secure the future of the excavated wooden objects from the site, including a public display. (£1,300,000).	2016	museum collection, ancient monument
Wareham Library Gardens, Dorset	Wareham & District Development Trust	'Threshold to Roman villa with advanced display'. This was to incorporate stones derived from the Bucknowle Roman Villa that are now in the grounds of the Library into a display about the building. (£5,600).	2016	museum collection
Welwyn Roman Baths, Hertfordshire	Welwyn Hatfield Museum Services	'Improving interpretation for children and families at Welwyn Roman Baths'. This was to improve visitor experiences. (£4,000).	2013	ancient monument
Welwyn Roman Baths, Hertfordshire	Welwyn Hatfield Museum Services	'What's under our feet? Community archaeology at Welwyn Roman Baths'. (£9,600).	2019	ancient monument
Whirlow Hall Farm, Sheffield	The Time Travellers	'Discovering our lost Iron Age and Roman heritage at Whirlow Farm'. This focuses on an Iron Age and Roman site on this farm, including excavation. It involves volunteers and a professional archaeological group. The Roman phases have been interpreted as a military watch tower and a Roman settlement with stone walled buildings	2015	community archaeology which many have been involved with military activity exploiting the local minerals. (£59,500).

Whitley Castle, Alston, Northumberland	Epiacum Heritage Ltd	Establishing Epiacum'. This was to facilitate future access, enjoyment and understanding of this Roman fort. (£10,000)	2014	ancient monument
Wrawby, Brigg, Yorkshire and the Humber	Wrawby Local History Group	'Wrawby Roman Site'. The Wrawby Local History Group set this up to explore the site of a number of Roman finds after field walking. An archaeological organisation titled Archaeological Project Services was commissioned to undertake geophysical survey and excavation. This uncovered a number of Roman archaeological features indicating the site of a settlement and also an Iron Age site. (£18,800).	2008	community archaeology
Writtle, Essex	Heritage Writtle	'Historic Writtle - Village life through misfortune and war -Roman period to World War II'. This investigated the history of the locality including some excavation of a Roman site. (£5,800).	2012	community archaeology
Yorkshire Museum, York	York Museum Trust	'Constantine the Great - York's Roman Emperor'. An exhibition to mark Constantine's connections to York. (£50,000).	2005	museum collection

Name of site	Main organisation	Nature of project	date	Type
York Minster, York	York Minster	'Revealing York Minster'. An interactive tour that addresses the history of the land on which the Minster is built, including the Roman barracks of the legionary fortress. The total funding for works at the Mister is around, including funding from the NHLF (£20,000,00).	2013	ancient monument

Scotland

Name of site	Main organisation	Nature of project	date	Type
Antonine Wall, West Dunbartonshire, East Dunbartonshire, Glasgow, North Lanarkshire, Falkirk	West Dunbartonshire, East Dunbartonshire, Glasgow, North Lanarkshire, Falkirk, Scotland	'Rediscovering the Antonine Wall'. This is involving communities along the Antonine Wall in developing Roman-themed play-spaces, replica stone slabs and community videos. This is being led by a 21st-century legion of 300 volunteers and involves 30 community-designed projects. Resources for schools explore topics such as Roman cooking and crafts (£980,600). This organisation has had previous funding from the NHLF.	2017	ancient monument, commemoration

Burnswark, Dumfries & Galloway	Trimontium Trust	'Burnswark Roman Siege project'. To excavate and produce a digital exhibition about the archaeology in proximity to Burnswark hillfort. (£53,900).	2015	community archaeology
Cumbernauld, North Lanarkshire	Greenfaulds High School	'SSB A Sense of Place-the Roman presence on Cumbernauld'. This enabled school pupils to visit various Roman sites and museum collections. (£10,000).	2017	ancient monument
Edinburgh	City of Edinburgh Council, Museums & Galleries	'Roman Lioness Sculpture from Cramond project'. Acquisition of the sculpture for the National Museum of Scotland (£35,000).	1997	museum collection
Edinburgh	School of Ancient Crafts	'Romans in Scotland'. Involved three workshops for school children, including making Roman wax tablets, mosaics and oil lamps. This seems from the organisations website to have been used to run workshops on making Roman shoes.	2015	commemoration
Fairmilehead, Comiston, Edinburgh	Archaeology Scotland	'Comiston Roman Quest'. For an excavation on the site of a supposed Roman fort, undertaken by AOC Archaeology with a local community group. (£8,600).	2013	community archaeology
Newstead/Melrose, Borders	Trimontium Trust	'The Newstead Treasure: gifts for the Gods, murder mystery or Roman rubbish'. To investigate the context of	2017	museum collection, ancient monument the material derived from the pits associated with the Roman fort. (£9,100).

Newstead/Melrose, Borders	Trimontium Trust	'Trimontium Museum'. Volunteers will extend and update this museum which tells the story of the local Roman fort. The display will encourage people to learn the story of Roman Scotland through walks, talks and events. (£571,500).	2019	museum collection, ancient monument
Newstead/Melrose, Borders	Trimontium Trust	'The Digital Romans', funding to make Roman-period collections accessible digitally to diverse audiences (£85,000)	2022	museum collection
Kirkcaldy Museum, Kirkcaldy, Fife	Kirkcaldy Museums and Art Gallery	'A Roman Holiday'. Development of a free family-friendly exhibition involving various displays and a performance by the Antonine Guard. (£12,200).	2008	commemoration

Wales

Name of site	Main organisation	Nature of project	date	Type
Caerwent, Monmouthshire	Parish Church at Caerwent	'Monmouthshire's Roman Links'. To improve visitor facilities to the Roman civitas capital. (£5,900).	2013	ancient monument
Caerwent, Monmouthshire	The University of South Wales	'The Romans at Venta Silurum'. Production of a virtual model of the Roman Town and creation of an App and website. Involving a range of schools from south Wales. (£39,000).	2015	ancient monument
Gelligaer Roman Fort, Caerphillly	Gelligaer Community Council	Gelligaer Roman Heritage Interpretation Project'. To help local community groups to investigate, learn about and gain access to this Roman fort, (£21,100).	2009	ancient monument
Mumbles, Swansea	Mumbles Development Trust	'Exploring the Roman heritage of Mumbles and the origins of the famous Mumbles Oyster Fishery'. Excavation with community group and archaeologists to assess a midden with Roman finds. (£27,600).	2016	community archaeology
Rhymney, Caerphilly	Rhymney Comprehensive School	'The Romans and Rhymney (the Rhymney Centurions)'. To enable school children to explore the Roman invasion of	2011	commemoration

		Wales and the legacy left behind, including booklet and website. (£16,800).		