Introduction

Collection title: Thomas Hogg Manuscripts

Reference code: GB-0033-HOG

Dates of creation: 17th and 18th century, with transcriptions of material back to 13th century.

Extent: 4 volumes

Repository: Durham University Library, Archives and Special Collections

Creator: material collected by Thomas Hogg, partially in the course of his work as agent for Durham Dean & Chapter estates.

Language of material: English

Contents

The manuscripts consist of three volumes of transcripts, with a few original documents, concerning Durham Cathedral, City and County (Hogg MSS 1, 2 and 4) and a letter-book (Hogg MS. 3) in which Hogg copied or wrote drafts of his own outgoing letters, 1771-76. The letter-book records primarily his business affairs, both his own purchasing activities and his work for those who used him as an agent, but it is also a mine of information on local personalities and contemporary events and social life. The volumes of transcripts are concerned particularly with the government of Durham City, with 17th and 18th century land surveys, enclosures and tithe disputes, and with revenues and other matters of the Dean and Chapter. Some of the transcripts were no doubt copied for their antiquarian interest, but most were more probably assembled as background reference material for Thomas Hogg's work.

Thomas Hogg

Details of Thomas Hogg's life are elusive. According to the D.N.B article on his grandson Thomas Jefferson Hogg (1792-1862), Thomas Hogg made a fortune as the Dean & Chapter's land agent. He first appears in their records in 1739 (Treasurer's Books Michaelmas 1739/40) and then signs the Treasurer's Discharge in 1742 (Audit Book A V). When he ceased to act as their land agent is not clear, but in a letter to Thomas Wells of 29 July 1771 (Hogg MS. 3 f.4r), Hogg states that he had not been concerned with Dean & Chapter estates for some time. He continued, however, to be active as a land agent on behalf of other clients and many individual members of the Chapter. Hogg married Ann, only child and heiress of John Jefferson of Norton, descendant of John Jefferson, Solicitor General for Durham during the Restoration period (W. Fordyce, History ... of Durham (1857) i, p. 205), an alliance which probably accounts for the inclusion in the manuscripts of transcripts of a number of documents relating to the elder Jefferson (e.g. Hogg MS. 1, nos. 12, 13).

Accession details

The Hogg MSS were presented to Durham University Library in 1907 by Thomas Jefferson Hogg of Norton, Co. Durham, and comprise four volumes of manuscripts of his forebear, Thomas Hogg (d. 1776), also of Norton, land agent to the Durham Dean and Chapter.

Arrangement

The material is bound in four volumes.

Form of citation

The form of citation should be GB-0033-HOG, or the collection title Thomas Hogg manuscripts, and the volume number.

To order items in the searchroom, use the collection reference code(s), derived by removing the repository code (GB-0033-), followed by the reference number. Citing the section of the finding aid is useful.

Bibliography

References are given separately under each entry.

Related material elsewhere

A further quantity of manuscripts and printed books of the Hogg family of Norton were sold at Christies's auction BKS 1412 at South Kensington, 14 December 1984, but were unfortunately heavily lotted (lots 4-14). These included letters to Thomas Hogg, six estate books, and related receipts (lot 5). Durham University Library bid for most of the manuscript material but was successful only in acquiring lot 14 (commonplace books of John Hogg, Thomas Hogg's grandson, now among the Library's Additional MSS.) Lot 13 went to Yale University, and the rest of the material is thought to have been widely dispersed.

Hogg MS. 1

Volume of transcripts of charters, grants, orders, etc., largely concerning the government of the City of Durham. Written in the 18th century, pp. iii and 1-70 in a large clear copyist's hand, pp.71-75 at least partly in the hand of Thomas Hogg.

Some errors in pp. 1-70 (e.g. date of no. 4) suggest that the accuracy of the copyist, or possibly his sources, cannot entirely be relied on.

Size: 375 x 245 mm.

Binding: Early 20th century marbled paper over stiff cardboard boards, buckram spine, trade label of T. Caldcleugh & Son, bookbinders etc. 45 Saddler St., Durham, on front pastedown. iv, 86pp.

p. iii.

Hogg MS. 1/14 (pp. 19-20) 24 August 1683.

- a. Grant to Alderman John Duck, from John Hutchinson, Mayor, of permission to construct a pipe, conveying water from the pant in the Market place to his own home.
- b. A list of the 24 members of the Common Council who consented with the Mayor and Aldermen to the above order.

Hogg MS. 1/15 (p.21) 12 March 1685/6

Memorandum of a general meeting, held in Durham, where the new Charter of incorporation, dated 7 March, 1 James II [1686] was read, and recording the election of Marmaduke Allenson to the Mayoralty, and the appointment of 12 Burgesses (named) as Aldermen.

This charter, granted by Bishop Crewe after he had in 1684 demanded the surrender of Bishop Matthew's 1602 charter, appears to have become null in 1689, when the 1602 charter was revived (see below nos 23-24.)

For a copy of the 1686 charter see Hogg Ms. 2, no. 9.

Hogg MS. 1/15a

Strip of paper tipped in before p.21 with note of the order of the Mayor etc. surrendering the 1602 charter to Bishop Crewe, 25 August 1684, and of issue of new charter, 7 March 1 James II [1686].

Hogg MS. 1/16 (p. 21) 19 March 1685/6

Memorandum of the election of 24 members of the Common Council of the City of Durham, with a list of those elected, and a note of the appointment of 2 sergeants to the Mayor and Aldermen.

Hogg MS. 1/17 (p. 23) 13 March 1687/8

Order from Nathaniel Lord Crewe, Bishop of Durham, removing George Morland from being an Alderman of the City of Durham, and requiring the Mayor and Aldermen to appoint a replacement.

Hogg MS. 1/18 (p. 23) 14 May 1689

Letter of resignation of Sir John Duck from the position of Alderman of the City of Durham.

Hogg MS. 1/19 (pp. 24-5) 24 May 1689

Memorandum of a meeting of the Mayor, Alderman, and Common Council of Durham, to elect a new Alderman to replace Sir John Duck, with the names of those present, and of the election of John Gordon of Shacklock Hall, and his acceptance of the office.

Hogg MS. 1/20 (pp.26-42) [21 September] 1602

Letters Patent of Tobias Matthew, Bishop of Durham (1596-1606), granting a new charter to the City of Durham and Framwellgate, constituting the burgesses and inhabitants a body politic and corporate composed of a Mayor, 12 Aldermen, and 24 Common Council men, who are to be elected from twelve specific trades. Grants powers to make by-laws, confirms earlier grants of rights to hold courts, fairs and markets, and to collect tolls.

Grants power to hold a borough court, view of frankpledge and court leet, and to hold a Saturday market and three annual fairs, and nominates a clerk of the market.

In an English translation by George Barkas, Public Notary and deputy to John Jefferson, Recorder of Durham.

Another copy: Durham Cathedral Library Allan Ms. 7., p. 12 (Latin.); p. 42 (English)

Hogg MS. 1/21 (pp. 42-5) 15 February [1606]

Letters Patent of James I, confirming the above charter.

An English Translation.

Another copy: Durham Cathedral Library Allan Ms 7 p.12 (Latin), p.42 (English).

Hogg MS. 1/22 (pp.45-53) 6 September 1637.

Decree concerning the law suit brought in the Durham Chancery Court by Thomas Mann and others, lessees of the tolls, against Margaret Forster and others, concerning the ancient right of scavage or toll corn.

Restricts the measure exacted by the farmers of the tolls to one uniform pint per bushel, and modifies the time of exacting the duty to noon.

Another copy: Durham Cathedral Library, Ms. Allan 7, p. 116.

Hogg MS. 1/23 (p. 54) 25 August 1684.

Surrender by the Mayor (John Hutchinson), Aldermen and Common Council of Durham (with a list of their names), of the Charter of Incorporation granted by Bishop Matthew in 1602 (see item Hogg MS. 1/20 above) to Nathaniel Lord Crewe, Bishop of Durham.

Printed: Hutchinson, History ... of Durham, ii pp. 31-2.

Hogg MS. 1/24 (pp. 55-9) 21 January 1688/[89]

Account of the redelivery by Robert Delavall (appointed mayor by Bishop Crewe) of the charter of 1602 and confirmation of 1606 (surrendered to Bishop Crewe by John Hutchinson, mayor, in 1684) back to John Hutchinson and the Aldermen and Common Council, and of the surrender of and reappointment to the office of Mayor of Robert Delavall, and election of two Aldermen.

Hogg MS. 1/25 (pp. 60-61) 4 February 1688/[89]

Memorandum recording the election of 9 Common Council men from specific trades.

Hogg MS. 1/26 (pp. 61-2) 8 February 1688/[89]

Memorandum recording the meeting of the Mayor, Aldermen, and members of the Common Council to elect a new Alderman, in the place of Charles Mountagu (with a list of names of those present) and the election of William Greeveson, and his acceptance of the office.

Hogg MS. 1/27 (pp. 63-9) 7 September 1664

Decree of the Durham Court of Chancery, concerning the payment and collection of scavage corn, in the case brought by Stephen Thompson and others, lessees of the tolls, against Roger Talbot.

Hogg MS. 1/28 (p. 70) 24 December 1664

Order for the performance of the above decree.

Hogg MS. 1/29 (p.71) 17 October 1773

Letter to John Lambton Esq., M.P., at Harraton Hall, nr. Durham, from George Brooks, Auckland Castle, writing on behalf of the Bishop of Durham [John Egerton, Bishop 1771-87], sending a copy of the report [see next item] prepared by the Attorney General of the Durham Palatinate, to whom the Bishop had referred petitions for a new charter for the City of Durham.

Copy in the hand of Thomas Hogg.

Hogg MS. 1/30 (pp. 71-5) 7 August 1773

The report of the Attorney General, James Wallace, referred to in no. 29.

Copy, at least partly in Thomas Hogg's hand.

Partially printed from (p. 73) "But the titles ..." Hutchinson, History ... of Durham, ii, pp. 40-1.

Hogg MS. 2

Volume of 11 miscellaneous documents, English and Latin, 17th-18th century, some originals, some copies, originally loose but now bound up together, concerning the Dean & Chapter, City and Palatinate of Durham.

Size: 340 x 225 mm.

Binding: Buckram, early 20th c., trade label of T. Caldcleugh & Son, bookbinders, Durham.

Hogg MS. 2/1

Copy of Charles II's confirmation, 23 Oct. 1675 of the Foundation Charter, 20 Sept. 1669, of Bishop Cosin's Library, Durham.

The original charter and confirmation are both now lost.

There is a copy of a 1696 exemplification of the confirmation in Durham University Library, Mickleton & Spearman MS 91, f.169

Paper 1f.

Hogg MS. 2/7

Extract from Halmote Court Records, case of Anthony Hall and 6 others versus Robert Skepper concerning certain closes near "Sleperlawe", 20 April 19 Eliz. I [1577].

Hogg MS. 2/8 16 September 1691

Letter from Samuel Gerard, Gateshead Park, to Nathaniel Lord Crewe, Bishop of Durham, complaining that no doubt because of the ignorance of some clerk or officer, a precept has been issued in the name of Mr. Mountagu for holding a Court Baron in the manor of Whickham in 3 weeks time, although as the Bishop and Mountagu know, Gerard has purchased the right to hold such courts.

Asks that the precept be withdrawn, and administration of the manor left to himself and his steward.

Paper 2ff.

Hogg MS. 2/9

Letters Patent of Nathaniel Lord Crewe, Bishop of Durham, 7 March, 1 James II [1686] granting a new charter for the city of Durham.

Follows closely the Charter of 1602 (Hogg Ms. 1 no. 20) whose surrender Crewe had demanded in 1684, but with a clause prescribing that the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Councillors shall conform to the Church of England.

18th century copy.

Language: Latin

42 ff. (text on ff. 9-34, other leaves blank).

Location of originals: Durham County Record Office, Du 1/4/2.

Hogg MS. 2/10

"The Annual Rents Belonging to the Bishoprick and See of Durham. Taken in 1733".

Text of the rental (pp. 1-37) and title and notes on front wrapper in the hand of Thomas Hogg.

The front wrapper notes include his comment "But since the year 1733. There have been great advances in the B[isho]ps Rental particularly in the Division of Com[m]ons, and new leases granted".

On pp. 38-41 there is an added memorandum (? by Hogg writing more carefully, or in a copyist's hand) on the extent and powers of the Durham Palatinate.

Another copy appears in Hogg MS 4, no. 6 (pp. 63-66).

Booklet of 44pp. in paper wrappers. Pagination of pp. 1-37 contemporary with text, pp. 38-44 paginated in 1987.

Copied from (not quite word for word), pp. 1-7 of An enquiry into the Ancient and Present State of the County Palatine of Durham [by John and Gilbert Spearman] (1729)

Hogg MS. 2/11

"Durham Com[m]ons & Entercom[m]ons".

File of 18th century documents on schemes for enclosing the commons of the city of Durham and Framwellgate.

Possibly a file assembled in connection with the unsuccessful bills of 1771 and 1772 "for dividing and inclosing certain wastes or commons, and two parcels of ground called the Intack, or Cow-pasture and Shaw-Wood in the parish of St. Oswald and manor of Chester".

(See Commons Journals v.33, pp. 98, 248, 255, 272, 281, 502-503, 763. An enclosure act for these commons was eventually passed in 1801, 41 Geo. III., private, c.12.

Durham University Library has printed copies of the bills of 1771 or 1772 and the act of 1801). The latter two items in the file probably relate to the 1771/1772 bills, while the first two items appear to be copies of documents concerning a much earlier 18th-century proposal for enclosing the city's commons, presumably transcribed as background material for someone involved in the 1771/72 scheme.

Another copy of these documents appears in Hogg MS 4, pp. I, 43-57.

The contents of the file are as follows:

16 leaves (originally 4 separate documents, paginated in 1987 p. 1-32), in 18th century wrappers, with title as below on front wrapper.

11 (a) Pages 1-8.

P. 1.: Note in late 18th c. hand that "The things contained in this book were copied from old papers whereby it appears That there was a scheme ... many years ago ... for dividing the Commons belonging to the City of Durham ...", and further note in a different hand plausibly dating this earlier scheme to circa 12 Wm. III [1700].

Pp. 3- 8: Transcripts of documents relating to this earlier scheme: viz. list of the houses in Framwellgate and St Nicholas Parish, set out street by street, with names of householders (pp. 3-6), list of "Commissioners intended to be named in the Act ... for dividing certain Comons belonging to the City of Durham ... " (p. 7), and "Observations in a letter", partly objections to the measure (pp. 7-8).

11 (b) Pages 9-24.

Arguments in favour of the earlier scheme, and draft bill (this document also has pagination 1-15 contemporary with the text), viz:

"The Case of the Com[m]ons and Enter com[m]ons belonging to the City of Durham and Framwellgate and proposals for the dividing the Commons and keeping up the Entercom[m]ons" (pp. 9-14), and "Draft of the bill. An Act for dividing the Com[m]ons & freeing the inclo. grounds belonging to the City of Durham & Framwellgate from Entercom[m]ons" (pp. 15-23).

No such bill seems actually to have been introduced into Parliament.

11 (c) Pages 25-30.

Observations, largely critical, on a bill [i.e. the 1771/72 bill?] "For Dividing & inclosing certain parcells of land called the Intack or Cow pasture & Shaw wood".

11 (d) Pages 29-32.

Further observations on the [1771/72] bill, in a different hand. These observations support the proposed measure, and give names and reasons of objectors to it.

Hogg MS. 3.

30 May 1771 - 8 December 1776

Letterbook of Thomas Hogg.

Copies or drafts in Hogg's own hand of his outgoing letters, over 1,000 in all, closely written, with on average about 3 letters to the page. The letters are primarily concerned with Hogg's business affairs, but also shed much light on contemporary affairs and local personalities. By the time the letterbook begins Hogg had already ceased to be the Dean & Chapter's land agent (Hogg MS. 3 f.4r), but the letters document his own purchasing activities, and his work for the numerous clients who used him as an agent, including many individual members of the Chapter, e.g. William Markham, the Bishop of Chester (Hogg MS. 3, f.1r) and William Warburton, the Bishop of Gloucester (Hogg MS. 3, f.4r-4v). References to bankers and accountants, both in Durham and London, abound, and there are many sidelights on matters affecting the Dean & Chapter (e.g. the death of Bishop Trevor and arrangements in Durham concerning it, Hogg MS 3, ff.3-4), and on contemporary social life and Hogg's family affairs. The last letter in the vol. is dated 8 December 1776 and Hogg died on 27th December (ms note by J.T. Fowler at end of vol.).

Size: 323 x 204 mm.;

Binding: 18th century quarter calf, marbled paper over boards, contemporary ms. title on spine "Coppy's Letters 7". With three letters (Hogg MSS 3a-c), found loose in the vol., in pocket inside back cover.

166 ff. (foliated in the early 20th c.). Text ends on f. 140v.

Hogg MS. 3a

Copies of letters from Hogg to Mr. Corday at Miss Clayton's, Tilney Street, London, 9 July 1776, and to Mr. Parry [? same date], concerning the efficacy of the medicine prescribed for Hogg's illness by Parry. Written on the back of part of a letter [to Hogg] from Pol[icarpus] Taylor ... (For Taylor, see DNB).

1 sheet

Hogg MS. 3b

Copies of 7 letters from Hogg, 23 July - 26 August 1776, to Mrs. Vane and others.

1 folded sheet.

Hogg MS. 3c

Letter to Hogg from T[homas] Dampier [Dean of Durham], from Windsor, 6 December 1776.

Hogg MS. 4

Volume largely concerned with Dean & Chapter property in Durham City and in the Billingham area.

Written in the 2nd half of the 18th century, at least partly in Thomas Hogg's hand, and with his ownership inscription on front flyleaf and rear pastedown.

Size: 330 x 205 mm.

Binding: 18th century stiff vellum.

79 leaves

Sequence beginning at front of vol. (I)

Hogg MS. 4/1 j9(pp. I, iii and 1-36)

Enclosure award for common land at Wolviston in Billingham parish, Co. Durham, by private agreement between the freeholders and leaseholders and the Dean & Chapter of Durham.

Agreement of the freeholders and leaseholders to submit to the award of the arbitrators dated 19 March 1696/97, with additions 16 August 1697.

Agreement of the Dean & Chapter to submit to the award dated 20 October 1697 (p.5).

Arbitrators: Marmaduke Chapman of Norton, yeoman; William Ward of Billingham, yeoman; William Arrowsmith of Close, yeoman; John Leighton of Durham City, gent.; Cuthbert Bowes of Durham City, gent., or any three.

Land surveyed by John Leighton (p. 6).

Award dated 22 October 1697.

Index of the allotments of land on p. iii.

John Jefferson, Thomas Hogg's father-in-law, was one of the tenants involved in this award; the allotment to him (pp. 17-18) is annotated with financial calculations.

Hogg MS. 4/2 (pp. I, 38-39) 1754

A. Rentall of Wolviston Tithes 1754.

List of tenants at the time of the 1697 enclosure award (see no. 1) with the names of their successors in 1754, details of their holdings, and the composition for tithes pertaining to each.

With summary of the holdings in the township:

13 Dean & Chapter farms, 5 Dean & Chapter odd hundreds, 8 Dean & Chapter cottages, 25 freehold oxrights or 3 farms and 1 oxright, and 3 freehold cottages, making in all 18 farms.

With note "8 odd hundreds is a farm, or 8 oxrights is a farm".

Thomas Hogg holds the land held by John Jefferson in 1697.

Hogg MS. 4/3 (pp. I, 40-41) No date [? also 1754].

A Rental of Wolviston Oat Rents according to the [Dean & Chapter's] Receivers Books.

With summary "In all 13 Farms Dean & Chapter, besides the Cottages and freeholds".

Hogg MS. 4/21 (pp. II, 17-22) 1774

"The Case of Billingham Tythe Corn" : evidences and queries concerning a dispute over composition for tithes at Billingham, 1774.

Common land at Billingham, where most of the commoners were leaseholders of the Durham Dean and Chapter, had been enclosed by private agreement in 1716, and the Dean & Chapter and tenants had the enclosure award registered by Chancery decree in 1717. By this decree a modus of composition for tithes was set, and followed until 1774 ; by then however, the composition payments had fallen far behind the value of the tithes, and the new Dean, Thomas Dampier, attempted to repudiate the composition and resume payment of tithes in kind. The name "Mr. Peter Bowlby" appears at the foot of p. 19 (like Hogg, Bowlby served the Dean & Chapter as land agent, and may have been responsible for drawing up this document).

Pages 20-22 contain comparative evidence relating to Ferryhill and Merrington, extracted from An Enquiry into the Ancient and Present State of the County Palatine of Durham [by John and Gilbert Spearman] (1729), pp. 125-127.

Hogg MS. 4/22 (pp. II, 23-24) 13 March 1775[/76]

J. Skynner's legal opinion to the Dean and Chapter, on the Billingham tithes dispute (No. 21), with observations on it by Mr. Woodford, advising that the Dean's claim to resume payment of tithes in kind would have poor chance of success before a jury "for the Farmers or even their betters of the laity are of the Quakerish Cast, fond of Modus's & bear a strong aversion to tythes".
