Letter, by R[oger ?] of Tynemouth [prior of St Leonard's Stamford ?], to W[illiam of Tanfield ? *] prior of Durham, having been informed by W. that Thomas of Blyborough, W's neif and formerly clerk of the earl of Lancaster, had sent to W. his two brothers with letters by the king, queen and others requesting a grant to Thomas's mother of one bovate from W's demesne in Blyborough claimed as leased to her by R's predecessors. [The content of the letter, and in particular the mention of a lease by R's predecessors, indicate that the writer was prior of Stamford, and the only possible identification is with Roger, who was commissioned as prior in October 1308 (Lincoln Register 2 f.23v), shortly after the appointment of William of Tanfield as prior of Durham; William resigned in June 1313.]
