Contents

College records reflect all aspects of the college's life and may include minutes of its governing body/council and other committees, registers and files of its students, administrative and financial papers of its officers such as the master/principal and bursar (including covering maintenance of the buildings), also minutes, accounts, photographs and ephemera of the running of the dining halls and chapels, of the common rooms (senior, middle and junior), and of the student sports clubs and societies, with also on occasion papers of some of the senior and/or junior members, and some artefacts, principally occasional items of clothing such as ties, blazers, tee-shirts or specific college memorabilia.

Administrative history

St John's Hall was founded in 1909 to provide an opportunity for prospective ordinands in the Church of England to receive a university education outside Oxford or Cambridge. It became St John's College in 1919 and a full constituent college of the university of Durham in 1923, but it remains independent of it both administratively and financially. From its earliest days a small number of non-ordinands were also admitted to the student body, although the proportion of non-theologians remained very small until the 1950s. In 1958 a separate hall within College, Cranmer Hall, was formed for ministerial training. Cranmer Hall has been a recognised Anglican theological college ever since. The remaining "Junior Hall", now known as John's Hall, has grown much larger than Cranmer and admits students reading for the whole range of university degrees. St John's College is governed by the College Council and supported by two external bodies, St John's Society (the Alumni association) and the Senior Common Room. The college officers are responsible for the daily management of the college. They comprise the principal, senior tutor, bursar and warden of Cranmer Hall.

Principals:

1909-1911 Rev Sidney Nowell Rostron

1911-1919 Rev Prof Dawson Dawson-Walker

1919-1945 Rev Canon Charles Steel Wallis

1945-1954 Rt Rev Ronald Ralph Williams

1954-1955 Rev Dr G.J. Cuming (acting)

1954-1970 Rev Dr Jim P. Hickinbotham

1970-1978 Rev John C.P. Cockerton

1979-1988 Miss D. Ruth Etchells

1988-1992 Dr A.C. Thiselton

1992-1999 David V. Day

1999-2006 Rt Rev Stephen W. Sykes

2006-date Rev Dr David Wilkinson

(There was a forerunner to the foundation of Cranmer Hall in 1958. In October 1912, Cranmer Theological College was removed from Burslem in Staffordshire to Durham, being established at 45 (44 from 1913) North Bailey with Revd Hyma Henry Redgrave as principal and J.G.C. Hopper as butler. Its brief was to supply and train Protestant candidates for holy orders in the Church of England. Accommodation was provided for 24 students. However, in December 1913 Redgrave was found guilty of immoral conduct, although not guilty of adultery, and by 1915 the college had disappeared and 44 North Bailey became the Women Students' Common Room.)

Accession details

Deposited by the college October 2007 (Acc No Misc.2007/08:11).

Additional material received from the college:

March 2012 (Acc No Misc.2011/12:43);

April 2013 (Acc No Misc.2012/13:61);

December 2013 (Acc No Misc.2013/14:32);

Arrangement

College records are arranged as follows:

A Foundation

B Governance

C Administration

D Academic

E Clubs, Sports, Associations

F Photographs

G Publications and Ephemera

H Deposited/donated collections

I Artefacts

J Associated Trusts

Conditions of access

There is restricted access to administrative records less than 30 years old, with some further restrictions, generally as noted, on records less than 80 years old where the Data Protection Act applies.

Copyright and copying

Permission to make any published use of material from the collection must be sought in advance from the head of Collections (email pg.library@durham.ac.uk) and, where appropriate, from the copyright owner. The Library will assist where possible with identifying copyright owners, but responsibility for ensuring copyright clearance rests with the user of the material

Appraisal

Some accessions are appraised on site before transfer, others are appraised when received at Palace Green. Clean duplicates are generally removed.

Accruals

Continuous further accruals are anticipated. In April 2004, a retention schedule and other records management procedures were developed for the university's records to facilitate the regular transfer of records from the university's departments and offices to the archive. This draft retention schedule was developed further on the appointment of the first university records manager in August 2006, and revised in 2019.

Catalogued into XMetal by Francis Gotto c.2012 and also Michael Stansfield, incomplete. An Access database of c.2003 is held listing (incomplete) the archive as held in the college, recording the various numberings of at least the volumes. It also lists many of the loose photographs.

Form of citation

The form of citation should use the code GB-0033-UND/F4, or the collection name St John's College Archive, followed by the reference number.

To order items in the searchroom, use the collection reference code(s), derived by removing the repository code (GB-0033-), followed by the reference number. Citing the section of the finding aid is useful.

Governance

UND/F4/B

Council

UND/F4/B1

Biographical information: The Council was established as the governing body of St John's in 1910. In 1922, it was decided that a smaller, more local, body was needed to administer more directly the running of St John's and so a "local" committee was set up which met in Durham on a more regular basis. From 1946 this was called the executive committee.

Centre for Christian Communication

UND/F4/B2 1996 - 2005

Biographical information: The Centre sought to challenge the Church nationally to take more seriously the training given to ministers and readers in preaching apologetics and media skills. Based in the Crossgate Centre, it included offices, conference rooms and a multi-media studio which proved popular with college musicians and aspiring bands. As well as providing courses and facilities for the students at Cranmer and the Wesley Study Centre, the centre organised regional training days, consultations and national conferences, such as the annual Durham Preaching Conference, in addition to a major four year research and training project, VOX.

As director from 1996, Geoffrey Stevenson oversaw the initial configuration and equipping of the centre's facilities. He was joined in 1999 by David Wilkinson as associate director and fellow in Christian Apologetics. The centre was made possible by generous start-up grants and seed funding from the Jerusalem Trust and the William Leech Trust, and significant support from the Garfield Weston Foundation, Sir Halley Stewart Trust, as well as the St Margaret's Church Estate Charity. The centre closed in 2005 when the college was unable to secure further funding for it.

UND/F4/B2/A1 September 1996 - October 2002

CODEC Communication in the Digital Environment

UND/F4/B11

CODEC is a research institute established at St John's in 2009 to explore the interfaces between the Christian Faith (especially the Bible), the digital environment and contemporary culture. The institute developed out of the former Centre for Christian Communications, involvement with the Churches Media Council and the work of one of St John's Visiting Fellows. At the time of its establishment it had three centres focusing on different aspects of communication in the digital environment: the Centre for Preaching and Communication, the Centre for Biblical Literacy and Communication, and the Centre for Theological Engagement

Old Johnians/St John's Society and Friends of Cranmer Hall

UND/F4/E1

Biographical information: A Society of members of SJH who had completed their course there was formed in 1913, "for the purpose of having an annual Reunion". An association of Old Johnians in the dioceses of Durham and Newcastle was set up in September 1944. The St John's Society was founded in July 1979 to mark the 70th anniversary of the founding of the college: its purpose was to maintain contact with past members and to sustain an interest in the life and well-being of the college. The Society's officers include the president (usually the college principal), the chairman, secretary and treasurer.
